

Myth-Busters

September

Myth: Training is only for leaders!

Why take training?

- GSPW General Council policy #6 states you will take training for your job.
- Your volunteer agreement states you must take training for your position.

How do we market training?

- * Look for a training composite in your council calendar and on the website.
- * Training is a benefit that is offered to you by GSPW.
- * This benefit is for ALL adults, not just leaders.
- * Talk about training when you recruit a new volunteer for any troop or other job.

What is available?

- Training for volunteers taking on a new troop.
- Training for volunteers moving up to another age level.
- Training for volunteers who want to take girls camping.
- Training for volunteers who want to sharpen their outdoor skills.
- Training for Fall Sale and Cookie Sale programs.
- Training to introduce you to sharing International activities with girls.
- A variety of enrichment training from science fun to understanding teens.
- Training on CD for those who can't make Age Level Training meetings.

Check your council calendar and look for workshop flyers on our website and at Service Area meetings prior to the workshop.

Bring all of your troop volunteers to a training workshop and get energized for bringing the best Girl Scout experience to your girls!
